Social Land Concession

A "Social Land Concession" is a legal mechanism to transfer private state land for social purposes to the poor who lack land for residential and/or family farming purposes. (2001 Land Law & 2003 Sub-decree Nº 19 on Social Land Concession)

Local Social Land Concession Programs

Citizens/ the representative of citizens/ a civil society organization

Initiates a social land concession plan

- Initiates a social land concession plan; or - Reviews the social land concession plan initiated by the citizens and/or a civil society organization

Commune Council

District Working Group

Submits the social land concession plan

 Reviews and approves the plan - Informs the National Social Land Concession Committee about this approval

National Social Land Concession Committee

Reviews and approves the plan

Reviews and adjusts the plan or cancels the approval of the Provincial/Municipal Committee definition of the Within 60 Days

National Social Land Concession Programs

One or more relevant ministries or institutions

May initiate a National Social Land Concession Plan in certain specific situations provided by law. The concerned Provincial/Municipal Land Use and Allocation Committee, commune councils and area residents shall participate in its development.

National Social Land Concession Committee

May approve the plan as proposed or, in consultation with the concerned ministry or institution, adjust the plan.

An approved social land concession plan shall be available to the public in the relevant commune/Sangkat office, Provincial/Municipal Land Use and Allocation Committee office, and the National Social Land Concession Committee office, during working hours.

Criteria to apply for social land concession

Poor and/or landless people/ families

Families who have been displaced resulting from due to natural disaster a public infrastructure development project

Co-funded by the European Union

Families suffering

Repatriated families, demobilized soldiers and families of soldiers who suffered disability or died in the line of duty

Workers in the plantation areas of major Economic Land Concessions (ELCs)

Criteria for giving preferential treatment in the selection of land recipients

Time the family has lived in the social concession land area.

The head of family is a woman, a person with a disability, a veteran with a disability or a demobilized soldier.

This infographic was produced with the financial support of the European Union. Its contents are the sole responsibility of UN Human Rights and do not necessarily reflect the views of the European Union.

