Vuthy posted on his personal social network saying, "I am the general manager of the China Poipet Satellite City project under Oknha Leng Navatra. I ask Pov Soksan, the contractor for the construction of 30 commercial buildings, to solve the problem with all the workers and respect the obligations of the contract with the company immediately. If you fail to do so, the company will be forced to bring the law into this."

"I have tried to contact him several times, but he has refused to answer my calls. The evasion has seriously damaged the company's reputation.", he continued.

According to the general manager, the contractor previously always inquired the satellite city company to inquire about the money for the workers' wages, but on June 11, Pov failed to contact the communicate with the satellite city company. he was not heard from and his company could not be contacted.

While there is still no news, the workers are continuing in their protest. It is not known how far or how long the workers are willing to protest.
