Activities

As a leading company in Cambodia's real estate sector, CBRE Cambodia takes into consideration the impact our business has on suppliers, employees, local communities and stakeholders. Our aim is for our brand to not just be recognised for the way in which we work and provide our clients with added value, but also for the high-quality services that we offer and the way we conduct our business.

We support a range of initiatives, particularly the Lighthouse Club, a construction sector charity that looks after victims of construction accidents and supports the education of young Cambodians into the industry.
