2 garbage collectors were killed and 1 seriously injured this morning when they were hit by an out of control car, whose occupants then attempted to flee.

The tragedy occurred on Russian Federation Boulevard, in front of Pochentong Market in Sangkat Kakap I, Khan Por Senchey, Phnom Penh.

The garbage collectors were working on Russian Federation Boulevard, when a white CRV hit them head first, instantly killing 2 of the workers and seriously injuring another.

The occupants of the car then attempted to flee from the scene – first by driving away and then by foot.

The 2 fatalities have been named as San Chhay, male, 31 years old and Pen Chan, male, 41 years old both of Phum Mor, Sangkat Dangkor, Khan Dangkor, Phnom Penh.

It is not known whether the occupants of the car have yet been apprehended by authorities.
