At least 20 garment workers have sustained injuries in Svay Rieng province's Bavet city when the minivan they were traveling in crashed with the cement mixer truck, police said.

The accident occurred on Friday night on national road 1 in Prey Kangkunh commune's Prey Tup village.

Bavet city police said that one of the 20 workers, identified as Khuon Neam, 32, was seriously injured. They were admitted to the hospital and are recuperating from their injuries.

The truck driver left his truck behind and escaped after the accident.
